

2018 MUNICIPAL ELECTION – October 22, 2018

Are you on the Voters' List?

The Voters' List is a list of eligible electors (people who can vote) in the 2018 Municipal Election. The List of eligible electors within the Township of Puslinch will be available to view on Tuesday, September 4, 2018 at the Clerk's Office. Voters may inspect the list to ensure their names are on it as well as make inquiries regarding the status of their school support at the Clerk's Office, 7404 Wellington Road 34. Alternatively, individuals may call the Township Clerk's Office commencing on Tuesday, September 4, 2018 during regular business hours at 519.763.1226.

A notice advising electors of where and when to vote will be sent to all eligible electors. Electors who are not on the Voters' List will not receive a card, however, any person completing an application to amend the Voters' List will be advised of where and when to vote. Electors may also fill out the relevant documentation when voting, however, this will make the voting process more lengthy.

Please note: To be an eligible elector, a person must be a Canadian citizen, 18 years of age or older and a resident of the Township of Puslinch, an owner or tenant of land in the Township of Puslinch, or the spouse of such an owner or tenant in the Township of Puslinch and must not be prohibited from voting by law.
