Short Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

The property, the former School Section #4, located at 32 Brock Rd N, Puslinch, possesses significant cultural heritage value due to its association with the educational and social history of Township of Puslinch and the Aberfoyle area. This value is retained in the 1872 stone schoolhouse on the site. This building represents the efforts of the board of School Section 1 to provide free public elementary education to the local community. The schoolhouse was constructed in 1872 using building plans published by the Ontario Department of Education in the mid-nineteenth century as a guide. The property's architectural value lies in the exceptional craftsmanship attributed to local contractor, Robert Little. Many of the architectural elements present here are unique in the Township. The schoolhouse's strategic placement in an area where numerous Aberfoyle and area families attended adds to its historical importance. Given its pivotal role in the history of Puslinch, and growing urban development along Brock Road the property and its schoolhouse hold the status of an historical and geographic landmark. The property meets the requirements for designation prescribed by the Province of Ontario under the three categories of design/physical value, historical/associative value, and contextual value. The property is listed on the Township of Puslinch Municipal Heritage Register and has received a plaque from the Township's Heritage Committee for its cultural heritage value.

Design Value:

Constructed according to mid-nineteenth century Ontario Department of Education building plans, the building features elements representative of mid-nineteenth century Ontario schoolhouse design: front gable roof, single-storey rectangular form, window fenestrations on the side walls and a front facade with two entrances: one for girls and one for boys. This property showcases an outstanding and distinctive example of architectural interpretation of these plans and local stone masonry, combining Gothic and Italianate detailing. The contractor for the structure was Robert Little. Notable design features include the exterior walls cut from granite and amphibolite stone in coursed "Aberdeen bond." The schoolhouse is fitted with original large Romanesque sash windows on the side walls furnished with Gothic rectangular wood tracery muntins. A singular large Romanesque window is on the front façade. These windows feature intricate and distinctive limestone masonry in the large voussoirs, surrounds and sills. The front entrance maintains its original configuration, with separate doors for boys and girls, each equipped with Romanesque transoms and limestone voussoirs. An ocular datestone with a limestone surround under the front gable is inscribed "School Section 4 Puslinch 1872." The roof holds the schoolhouse's original belfry and bell.

Historical or Associative Value:

As Puslinch was settled, it was divided into twelve school sections (SS). The residents of each section built their own school, which not only represented and defined the geographic community but also became a centre for community activities.

This stone schoolhouse built in 1872 by Robert Little was the third incarnation of the School Section #4 succeeding a log structure (1832) and a frame building (1846). The schoolhouse's strategic placement in an area where numerous Aberfoyle and area families attended adds to its historical importance. The property served as an elementary school and social centre for the Aberfoyle school community from 1872 until 1959 when the new Aberfoyle School was established.

Contextual Value:

The property is emblematic of this once thriving village of Aberfoyle. It is surrounded by several other heritage properties along Brock Road in the Aberfoyle area. These residences, including the George McLean, John Hammersley, and Peter McLaren houses, among many others, played a significant role in shaping and establishing this part of Puslinch. The property is also in close proximity to the Aberfoyle Mill and Aberfoyle blacksmith and wagon shop, industrial heritage properties demonstrating the importance of the property's location as a hub of industry and services. The property holds the status of a landmark due to its architectural excellence and rich and complex history within the Township. Over the years, it has served numerous generations and families, playing crucial roles in both education and commercial activities.
